Role Description

MyBnk's approach to finance and enterprise education

Freelance trainers must be committed to delivering the programmes in line with our approach.

Our motto is "Every young person must be wowed". We aim to ignite young people's enthusiasm about learning about money and business.

Our approach to learning is SUPER:

- Specialist delivered by specialist and experienced trainers who know their field.
- Unique fresh approach to personal finance and enterprise. We embrace creative and new teaching methods to maximise the impact and learning for young people, and our brand, website and materials have won awards for their innovative nature.
- Participatory from taking out an interest free loan to start their first business to figuring out which supermarket deal is giving them the best value for money, young people learn by doing. Our approach is inspired by young people themselves our Youth Advisory Panel meet regularly and advise MyBnk on our topics, brand, resources and more.
- Effective programmes are designed to be suitable for a wide range of young people in different settings, allowing for different abilities and learning styles ensuring that nobody is left behind. We measure the impact of our programmes and our quality assurance system drives continuous improvement.
- Relevant we use real life stories, examples and videos to bring money and business to life.
 We draw on experiences from popular culture, current affairs and the experience of the group and their peers. We create a forum for young people to put their questions to our experts, clarifying terms and dispelling misconceptions.

Application Process

Please send a CV and covering letter to jobs@mybnk.org.

It is important to establish positive working relationships from the outset.

In your cover letter please describe two strategies you would use to achieve this with a group of young people you haven't met before.
